Annual Holiday Dinner

New Rebozo Chicago Restaurant 46 East Superior Street, Chicago

Chef Paco is known for his 21 different mole dishes! Each consists of enchiladas filled with chicken, beef, chorizo, guacamole, cheese or beans, then topped with mole pueblano, mole pipian, or other mole. Chile Nogada is a highly anticipated specialty each fall; a chile is stuffed with sweet beef made with dried fruits and nuts, then covered with walnut cream and fresh pomegranate seeds.

6:00 pm Cocktails, open bar – includes wine & beer (liquor, margaritas, and soft drinks also available at cash bar)

7:15 pm Dinner, fine Mexican cuisine, including chips, salsa, jicama salad, guacamole, ceviche, various mole, chile nogada, and coconut flan, served with wine, beer or soft drinks, then coffee or tea

8:30 pm Election of Officers for 2016-17 & other business

9:00 pm Conclude

Cost: $59 per person (advance pricing of $54 if paid by mail by December 2)
Guests are encouraged! Special for 2015: guests eligible for Club membership are half price!
