Outing to Visit Chicago's Ukrainian Village

Saturday, November 14, 2015, 11:15am to 3pm

Chicago's Ukrainian Village first began as farmland in 1870 on Chicago's west side. The settlers were poor peasants seeking a better life in America, who chose this area to settle in because of their traditionally close relationship with Poland in Europe and the surrounding Polish community in Chicago. Come visit their Museum, have an ethnic Ukrainian lunch at the Cultural Center, and visit two beautiful, representative churches, all located in one compact location on the west side of Chicago, along Chicago Avenue, between Damen Avenue & Western Avenue, and stretching from Huron St. to the south and Division St. to the north.

Plan:

11:15am – gather at Saints Volodymyr and Olha Ukrainian Catholic Church, 2245 West Superior St. (across from the Museum and Cultural Center; parking lot available). The parish priest will give us a guided tour, so please be on time! Then walk three short blocks north to arrive at...

12 Noon at St. Nicholas Ukrainian Catholic Cathedral, 2238 West Rice St. (parking also available, if folks want to move their cars, but not needed). We will also receive a guided tour there. Then we'll walk three blocks back south at arrive at ....

12:45pm at the Ukrainian Cultural Center (2247 West Chicago Avenue), where we will enjoy a comfortable lunch, then: 2:15pm we will head a block south to the Ukrainian National Museum, 2249 West Superior St., where we will receive another guided tour.

3pm we will be all finished (although the Museum is open to 4pm if folks wish to stay longer)

Cost: $34 per person (or by mail in advance by November 7, $29 per person)

Special for 2015: New guests who qualify for Circumnavigator Club membership are half-price!
