

Circumnavigators Club of Chicago

Invites you to a Celebration of Fall Colors

With Virginia Mullin sharing her Rwanda Gorilla Trek Experience

Circumnavigator Virginia Mullin loves travel and has visited 108 countries and all seven continents. With an interest in higher education, Virginia holds a Doctorate in Psychology, specializing in Behavioral Medicine. Her first international travel experience was spending a summer attending a language program at a Goethe Institut in Germany. Professional contributions include conducting research at a hospital in South Africa, and a three-year consulting contract with Assumption University in Bangkok, Thailand, mentoring students and serving on committees. She has published her work in professional journals on cross-cultural medicine, written about her travels in American Express publications and others. Virginia has won awards in amateur photography and currently enjoys presenting travelogues to organizations.
